NEXOULATE RAPID BRAND RUMBLE

OBJECTIVES:

RapidBrandRumble is an immersive one-day competition designed for students to develop comprehensive brand identities for randomly assigned business concepts. Participants collaborate in teams to create logos, select typography, define color palettes, and design intuitive user interfaces using tools like Canva, Figma or Adobe XD. The event emphasizes user-centric design principles, encouraging teams to craft engaging and accessible digital experiences. Throughout the day, teams culminate in presentations where they showcase their branding, UI/UX solutions and their advertising content. Judges evaluate based on creativity, coherence, and execution, with awards recognizing outstanding innovation and design excellence.
